

AF4 Study Timetable – October 2024 Exam

- This is YOUR study timetable to keep you on track towards passing the exam.
- We will send you an email every Friday to remind you and keep you on track with what module you are studying in line with the dates below. When you plan on Fridays, you can get started at the weekend or devote the following Monday morning energy to the work itself.
- Each week you should read your module notes, complete your workbook, watch your video tutorials, and have some fun with our online quiz. Then answer your exam style question and upload your completed answer by Monday morning.
- We will upload the written model answer for the exam style questions each Tuesday (as outlined below) for you to self-assess. This helps develop your understanding of how to lay out your answers and gain maximum marks in the exam.
- Use our investments forum to contact our experts. If you have a study question, we will investigate it, find a solution, send you an explanation and help you move forward to achieve your exam goals. There is almost a 100% correlation between active engagement and passing the exam.
